RELEASE OF LIABILITY Rovaniemi 150 Race

THE APPLICATION AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY IS A CONTRACT WITH LEGAL CONSEQUENCES

Please, read it carefully before signing it.

When registering, a participant commits him/herself to the following principles:
the participant has familiarized him/herself with the race information, is aware of the demanding conditions and risks of participation.

- Organizers have a liability insurance to cover their own actions but participants need to cover their own insurances. The organizer is prepared for first-aid during the race but does not provide medical coverage for the participant and the participant is responsible for any medical costs he/she incurs as a result of participation.

- In case of accidents during the race, the participants release the organizers from any liability or responsibility for participants physical condition, for the condition or selection of course route and for the presence or actions of any other participants.

- Participants verify that they are in sufficient physical condition to accept a rigorous level of physical activity and carry the obligatory equipment with them during the event.

By signing below, I also agree that I have read through the 66°North Race Rules, located in the web page.

I hereby grant permission for the free use of my name, any photos, videotapes, recordings or any other record of me for any purpose without limitation or compensation.
